

Academic Vocabulary

Week 1- part 2

Department of Linguistics

Faculty of Humanities and Sciences

Intended Learning Outcomes

- At the end of this lesson, students will be able to;
 - Define what academic vocabulary is
 - Identify the basic features of academic vocabulary
 - Use academic vocabulary in writing

What is academic vocabulary??

- The vocabulary which can be used in academic contexts
 - At university and higher education institutes
 - Writing assignments
 - Academic journals
 - Academic textbooks

Features of academic vocabulary

Avoid	contractions
Avoid	Slang
Avoid	Abbreviations
Avoid	Clichés
Avoid	Colloquialisms

AVOID contractions

I have
Do not

Informal

- Dude
- Friend
- Mad
- Cheeky
- Disrespectful
- Kinda
- Piece of cake
- Cool
- Bro
- Man
- Nuts
- Easy
- Break a leg

Formal

AVOID slangs

Slangs- Words/phrases from casual conversation

Dude - Guy

Bro - Friend

Kinda - Kind of

Piece of cake - Easy

Cool - Great/ fantastic

Nuts - Mad

Pissed off - very annoyed

Break a leg - Good luck

AVOID abbreviations

What is an abbreviation?

AVOID clichés

Money doesn't grow on trees

Love is blind

Sleeping
like dead

Laughter is the best medicine

AVOID Colloquialisms

cuz - because

gonna - going to

What's up? - How are you doing?

fam - family

Yea/Yeah - Yes

I dunno - I don't know

Nah/Naw - No

Whatever - You can decide. / I don't have a preference

Activity - Provide more formal vocabulary for the underlined words

- A free education system was set up in Sri Lanka as early as 1942. established
- This will cut down the amount of taxes. reduce
- Cost of living has gone up in many regions of the world. increased
- The aggregate of outstanding debts went up and down quite violently. fluctuated

- Dieters believe that they should completely get rid of high-calorie foods.
- Karl Marx looked into how this social system came into being in order to understand its features.
- Students are required to read the guidelines on how to carry out the research project.
- The pressure to do well as an individual made most students feel stressed out.

- Dieters believe that they should completely get rid of high-calorie foods. eliminate
- Karl Marx looked into how this social system came into being in order to understand its features. investigated
- Students are required to read the guidelines on how to carry out the research project. conduct
- The pressure to do well as an individual made most students feel stressed out. succeed

Activity Sheet & Vocabulary List

Thank You